Gav. 5-B - Maço 1-N.º 5

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or a related language. The text is dense and covers most of the page, with some lines appearing to be part of a list or a structured document. The script is highly cursive and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge. The text appears to be a legal or administrative document, possibly a contract or a record of a transaction. The handwriting is consistent throughout, suggesting a single scribe. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowed parchment. There are some stains and a hole at the bottom right corner of the page. The text is arranged in a single column, with some lines starting with a large initial letter, possibly a section marker. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged historical document.
